INSTITUTE MAY

HAVE TO BE SOLD

Chances for Saving the School at Bristol are Growing Gloomy.

The prospects for saving the Virginia Institute at Bristol, Va., in which Baptists throughout the State are interested, are very, very gloomy, and are growing more so as each day passes. It is generally believed now among local Baptists that the institution will be lost to the denomination.

As stated many times already the Bristol Institute is heavily burdened with debt and has been so for some years. A mortgage for $25,000 is held by the Estate-General Gray of Baltimore, and there are miscellaneous debts to the extent of ten or twelve thousand dollars.
Mr. Gray has agreed to renew the mortgage for five years, provided the $25,000 is paid off. These miscellaneous creditors, by the way, are clamoring for their money.

The efforts of Dr. Hatcher have been in the direction of raising this ten or twelve thousand dollars. He made a hard pull, and succeeded in getting together a large portion of it, but the time came for a payment and still a good piece of it was wanting. The Baptist Education Commission met and appointed a delegation to petition the court for an extension of time. The court granted thirty more days, but declared that after that time there must be no delay.

Now thirty days are now drawing to
